Supplementary Material

An interactive map has been created using Google Maps, displaying the wave events discussed in this paper, including those from the original catalogue of extreme waves O'Brien et al. (2013). The map is divided into 4 categories: Storm waves, Rogue waves, Tsunamis and Storm Surges. Lighter coloured markers represent events from the original catalogue O'Brien et al. (2013), while darker colours are used for events identified in this paper.

The map can be found by following this link:
