(a) Variables used to explain risk perception and behaviour

- age
- gender
- education
- experience
- exposure
- income
- family
- vulnerability
- occupation
- social capital
- coping capacity
- resilience
- ownership
- anxiety
- housing size
- housing quality
- insurance
- health
- minorities
- disability
- language
- other

(b) Variables relevant to compare risk perception studies

- dont know
- experience
- education
- vulnerability
- coping
- social capital
- exposure
- age
- gender
- resilience
- occupation
- family
- anxiety
- income
- insurance
- other
- housing quality
- minorities
- Number of responses