Contextualisation through end-user workshops and household surveys

Literature-based research on appropriate vulnerability indicators

Selection and spatial mapping of key indicators

Iterative revision cycle: presentation and discussion of interim results

Assessment of available data through statistical and GIS-based analyses