Dear Authors,

I have already finished the peer-review of the manuscript entitled “Land cover changes and forest landscape evolution (1985-2009) in a typical Mediterranean agroforestry system (High Agri Valley)” by Simoniello et al. It is really appreciable the effort made by the Authors and the topic is of high value for the scientific community. However, there are some topics presented by the Authors that are not clearly explained, and need to be addressed;
