The text and figures are good and the overall manuscript is well constructed for the reader. Very pleasurable reading. The subject is well explained in the introduction with explanation of the goal and risks of the alert missions and responsibilities for the citizens.

However some efforts should be given in the English wording like (but not exhaustive):

P2915 line 9 : write "a large" not "an large"

P2918 line 6 : write "with respect TO the location"

C1020

line 8 : double "the"

P 2912 line 6: write "from the beginning of March" or "from the first days of March"

P 2922 line 13: write "and each of the three" remove "ini"
