Dear Reviewer,

Many thanks for your kind review, suggestions and corrections. In the revised version, we will particularly pay the attention to the terminology and definitions as well as the captions and legends for the better “standalone” explanation and clarification of the figures. We would like to reply to the revision points of the reviewer in the following supplementary document.

We hope that these answers provided a better clarification and understanding of the paper. We believe that the final revised version is improved with the feedback given by the reviewer, and we like to thank the reviewer again for investing time in reading and
