Thank you for the reviewers' comments concerning our manuscript entitled “Spatial analysis of damaged vegetation in the Mianyuan River basin after the Wenchuan Earthquake”.

We all consider that all the comments are not focus on our manuscript “Spatial analysis of damaged vegetation in the Mianyuan River basin after the Wenchuan Earthquake”. And, we all see the attached file, which is entitled “Disaggregation of LST over India: Comparative analysis of different vegetation indices”. All the comments are about

C1543

Land Surface Temperature (LST), are not about our manuscript (earthquake-damaged vegetation / landslide / slope stability).
