Dear Referee #2, thank you for your comments and helpful suggestions. English will be surely revised to facilitate comprehension. As suggested the Authors will decrease the number of acronyms keeping only the most important ones and better explaining the choice to use acronyms not consistent with the terminology typically used in literature.

Specific Comments. Lines 2-5 on page 6023 and Lines 22-30 on 6023: The Authors agree with the suggestions, the sentences could be misinterpreted and a revision is necessary. In two cases the Authors decided to provide URLs. In the first case because the information present in literature is not exhaustive to describe the early warning system. In the second case the purpose is to provide a link to the database used for the analyses. The figures will be surely revised following the referee suggestions.

A detailed response to the comments will be provided together with revised version of the manuscript.
