The authors would like to thank the referee for his/her constructive comments. We provide here some general answer to the review:

- regarding the structure: we agree with the referee and will re-organize the paper in order to clarify the methodology and results

- references: we thank the reviewer for his/her interesting proposals and will try to insert as many as possible of them, though the number of references is limited by the review policy.

- the methodology will be more clearly described when appropriate. However, we do not agree about the use of evacuation instead of mobility as the paper deals with a
