Dear Indranil Kongar, Tiziana Rossetto, and Sonia Giovinazzi:

We have now received two sets of reviewer comments on your manuscript "Evaluating Simplified Methods for Liquefaction Assessment for Loss Estimation". The three comments are largely positive, although do make suggestions.

I would like to invite you to respond to the reviewer comments, with for each item brought up stating how you would change the manuscript in response (or if not, a reason why not).

There is still time for other public comments to be made (until 6 December) so the
