

Dear editor Maria Carmen Llasat,

We would like to thank your commitment throughout the revision process. Following your instructions, we have been throughout all the reviewer's advices. Most of them helped to improve the article substantially. These changes are highlighted in color red in the final version of the manuscript.

Additionally, we have resent the entire manuscript to a professional native writer, who helped to increase the formality and the clarity of the text. These changes are highlighted in color blue.

We hope that you can find this version of the manuscript acceptable for publishing.

Kind regards,
Jorge Eiras-Barca.
