

Dear Handling Editor Dr Sabine Loos and Executive Editor Prof Philip Ward,

We would like to thank you for accepting our revised manuscript with corrections. We appreciate the time and effort that you have dedicated to providing feedback. Please see below for the corrections we did based on your comments.

Yours sincerely,

Oya Kalaycioglu, PhD, on behalf of all authors

Corrections:

- 1- We have removed the unnecessary references and text that relates to earthquake hazard in Istanbul, as the direction of the paper is hazards in general.
- 2- We have corrected the typos (e.g., R Shiny, subsampling, northwest, data set, etc.) and
